DID YOU KNOW?

The position of a windmill's wings when standing still can indicate certain occasions? So, what the Old Mill's mill on their packaging indicate?

The Old Mill is dedicated to crafting the most delicious and artisanal Dutch biscuits, baked with passion and tradition. Their range includes a variety of well-known Dutch treats, all made using original family recipes that have been passed down through generations.

Among the most famous Dutch delicacies is the stroopwafel—a beloved treat first created in the early 19th century in the city of Gouda. It was there that the Kamphuisen bakery developed a secret recipe for this iconic cookie: crisp, double-baked wafers filled with rich, homemade caramel syrup. Since then, stroopwafels have become a treasured part of Dutch heritage, enjoyed worldwide.

Today, The Old Mill continues this time-honored tradition, using only the finest ingredients—pure butter, rich caramel syrup, and a touch of cinnamon—to create stroopwafels that stay true to their original recipe. Each bite offers a taste of history, crafted with the same care and authenticity that have made them a favorite for generations.

Beyond stroopwafels, The Old Mill also honors the legacy of Dutch baking with peanut cookies, speculaas and coffee flavoured wafers. With a deep respect for tradition and an unwavering commitment to quality, The Old Mill brings the essence of Dutch baking to life—one delicious bite at a time.
